

AUSTRALIAN RESEARCH COUNCIL NETWORK FOR EARLY EUROPEAN RESEARCH

Inaugural International Conference

3-8 July 2007, University Club, The University of Western Australia

Networks, Communities, Continuities: Europe 400-1850

The inaugural NEER international conference aims to foster innovative research and new connections between researchers, and especially to promote interdisciplinary and international contacts and collaborations. The conference will encourage discussion and the future advancement of topics and themes by means of 21 panel sessions of 4 pre-circulated papers per session. Informed and engaged discussion is the key to this conference so all Network Participants and interested researchers are encouraged to participate, whether they are presenting papers or not.

Plenary Speakers:

Michael Bennett: University of Tasmania
"Women and vaccination against smallpox in late 18th- and early 19th-century Britain."

Gene Brucker: University of California, Berkeley
"Florentine Historiography from Dante to the Fall of the Republic, 1300-1350"

Hal Cook : The Wellcome Trust Centre University College London
"Beyond the Republic of Letters: Travel, Meetings, and Global Communication in the 17th Century"

Yasmin Haskell: The University of Western Australia
"A Dutch doctor's 'Grand Tour' in Latin Verse"

Jean Howard: Columbia University
"Fictions of Community and Otherness: The New and Old Worlds in Early Modern Drama."

Ludmilla Jordanova: King's College London
"Images, Objects and Networks 1600-1850"

Stephen Knight: University of Wales, Cardiff
"Marvellous Merlin: Knowledge and Power"

Constant Mews : Monash University
"Communities of learning and the search for synthesis: The schools and colleges of thirteenth-century Paris"

Rosemary Sweet : University of Leicester
"Antiquarianism and the presence of the past in eighteenth-century culture"

Registration cost: $350 waged/ $100 concession

For more information please contact the Institute of Advanced Studies
t: +618 6488 1340 e: ias@admin.uwa.edu.au
www.ias.uwa.edu.au

Sponsored by

